VARSITY LOSES THREE GAMES

Cornell, Rochester and R. P. I. Prove Superior to Davis' Men in Week's Schedule

The Hamilton nine lost three games in the past week, in which the men displayed a rather unsteady brand of ball. Warren and Perry both pitched well but neither were supported well enough to secure a Buff and Blue victory. The strong Cornell team was the first to administer defeat to Davis' men at Ithaca to the tune of 8 to 4. Rochester carried off the laurels for the second time this year in a game that was close and hard fought from beginning to end. The university nine managed to reach home twice and were successful in shutting out the Buff and Blue. Perry pitched an excellent game and secured the only Hamilton hit of the game. The third defeat occurred at Troy when R. P. I. defeated the varsity by a score of 8 to 2.

Cornell Game

In this game poor fielding at crucial moments by the Buff and Blue backfield proved disastrous, and was largely responsible for the defeat at the hands of the Red team.

Warren pitched his usual good game, and allowed but nine hits and struck out eight men. He was badly supported, however, and his efforts were more or less futile.

In the third inning, which was Hamilton's first one for scoring, Tillotson lined one to shortstop and got on first. Warren got a hit through the left field. Meanwhile Tillotson had stolen second, and went home on Warren's hit.

The beginning of the fourth saw Shults and Davis go out on flies. Pottle went to first by an error. Tillotson hit through shortstop. Pottle went to third and Tillotson stole second. Yule made a hit through center and Pottle went home. Tillotson was stranded on third.

Pritchard, at the beginning of the sixth, got to first through an error. A sacrifice hit sent him to second. Warren struck out. Hunter shot a fly to left field and went out. Meanwhile Pritchard got home. Meehan struck out.

The second inning was the banner inning for Cornell which scored three rus. Cowan hit to left. Kaw sacrificed to second. Tone made a base on balls, and Wolff got an infield hit. Tone ran to third and sent Cowan home. Woodin hit to center field, thereby sending Tone in, and stole second. Fox went out on a hit to second. Davies hit to second. Evans struck out for the final out.

Pritchard was substituted for Tillotson in the fourth.

Rochester Game

As the score indicates, both pitchers were remarkably effective. Hamilton was held to a single hit, made by Perry in the sixth, while Rochester ran up six, nont of them more than a single. Perry, pitching his first full game for Hamilton, struck out ten men and did not walk a single man. Cahill, the Yellow and Black captain, was on the mound for Rochester; his record was nine strikeouts and two bases on balls. Only one error was chalked up against each team. Green, Rochester's second baseman, was the

CLASS DAY WILL BE BIG AFFAIR

Several Innovations to be Introduced —Will be Held in Afternoon

Hitherto, Class Day at Hamilton College has been a rather sombre affair and has not aroused the interest among the college that it does in other institutions. This year several departures from the usual routine will be made which will vary the program and add humorous touches, but at the same time will live up to the traditions of the college class days. W. C. Macey, Howland and L. S. Mulford are in charge of the program for the senior class.

Contrary to the previous announcement, the exercises will be held at 2 o'clock on Friday afternoon, June 16, and not in the morning. An amphitheatre is to be constructed on the campus so that the program may be presented out-of-doors, instead of in the college chapel, as was formerly the custom.

On Tuesday morning, June 13, at chapel, the Senior class will inaugurate a new custom. At that time, and on every day thereafter, each member of the class will be uniformly dressed. The nature of their costumes is as yet a secret. At the final ceremonies of class day, however, they will be dressed in their caps and gowns.

The program is not entirely completed and many of the plans will be held secret until the final day. The class will arrive at the amphitheatre at 2 p. m. in a most novel manner, after which each man will be introduced. The usual burlsques of the faculty will be given by humorous members of the class. The faculty scurfs will take the form of a debate by four seniors. The class history and propheey will likewise be read at this time. The winners of the voting for the usual run of offices, the president of Ireland, the class super, the handsomest man, and the like, will then receive their gifts. The location has not as yet been designated for the customary planting of the ivy, at which time short addresses are made by the class presidents. The addresses to the three lower classes will be of a humorous nature, and will be replied to in the same manner.

The class of 1922 is introducing this year a new custom which it is hoped will become a tradition on the Hill, namely, a class cup. At the last rites of the class ceremony, the cup, filled with water from the college well, to which so great tradition has always been attached, will make its appearance. President Ferry will then toast the class, and this toast will be followed by a reply, after which each member of the class will drink from the cup. This cup is to be kept at the college, to be brought forth at all subsequent reunions and banquets of the class of 1922.

—Among all the men's colleges of the United States, there are only fifteen, aside from those under denominational control, that are "strictly cultural," according to a recent editorial in the New York Times. Presumably, Hamilton is one of these fifteen. Of the 183 exclusively men's colleges and universities in America, 133, or ovr 73 per cent, now offer professional courses or vocational training.

NOTICE

Since the June examinations begin next week, this will be the last issue of Life until the Commencement number which will appear on Saturday, June 17. All freshmen competitors are requested to turn in their marked copies to the editor as soon as possible.

PLANS FOR SINGING CONTEST BETWEEN CLASSES

Song Leaders Appointed to Drill Men for Interclass Sing

Arrangements are now being made by a special committee for a college singing contest between the four classes. The idea originated when one of the upper classes challenged the other to a "singing bout" which was to be judged by the presidents of the sophomore and freshman classes. The project gained so much favor that the two lower classes were also admitted to the competition.

Each class has selected a song leader who will drill the men in rehearsals which will be held during the week. As stipulated in an agreement reached by the song leaders, each class will be required to sing "Gather Close, Ye Boys and Men" and any other college song which the class leader selects . After each class has given its section of the program, the ntire college body will unite in the singing of "Carissima." A committee of judges composed of faculty members will decide which class outshines the others in vocal interpretation.

This undertaking is a highly creditable attempt to improve the singing of the Hamilton songs by the undergraduates. The students have shown a great deal of interest in the contest and have pledged their hearty support.

The date of the competition has not been definitely set, but will be either on next Friday evening at 8 p. m., or at the next college meeting.

The song leaders are: 1922, Burns and Macey; 1923: Fitch and Weld; 1924, Bates and Moore; 1925, Thompson and Soper.

CHARLATANS TO PRESENT PLAYS

The Charlatans will present four one-act plays in the gymnasium on Friday evening, Juen 16. The first entitled "The Robbery" is a highly amusing comedy written by Clare Kummer. Baer, Spice, Perrine, and Hays will compose the cast.

"The Last Man In" will again appear on the program after its success on the Charlatans itinerary a year ago. Thomas, Perrine, Albertson, and Spice will fill the cast. The other two plays are the ones which were presented by the dramatic interpretation class a short time ago. They proved so popular that it was decided to add them to the commencement program of the Charlatans. The plays are "Moonshine" with Morehouse and Morris and "Lima Beans" with Baer and Lanrowitz, who won a great deal of applause in their performance.

HAMILTON TRIUMPHS OVER UNION IN LAST MEET OF YEAR

Track Team Wins Fourth Straight Victory and Terminates Successful Season—Thompson Breaks Another Record.

The Buff and Blue track team completed a perfect season when it defeated its old rival, Union, at Schenectady last Saturday, by a score of 49½ to 76½. With three straight victories fresh on their minds, Coach Squires' men got the jump on their opponent early in the meet and continued to hold the lead throughout the contest until they had added another scalp to their list. The Hill runners showed excellent form and completely outclassed the Garnet team. Tommy smashed another college record, thereby making a total of three for the season.

Snell clinched first place in the 440-yard dash by running the distance in the fastest time made in any dual meet since the time Fritz Lee, '15, set the college record at 49 8-10 seconds. Snell's time was 50 6-10. A. Alison crossed the line second and Morris was an easy third but was unfairly disqualified through ignorance of the referee. Morris was leading Patterson of Union, who pushed him in attempting to get the lead. Morris exhibited a game sprint and crossed the line ahead of his opponent. The referee claimed that Morris boxed Patterson.

Oram beat the gun in the 100-yard dash and won first place closely fol lowed by Alison. It was finally deemed necessary to put a judge on the starter after another Union man beat the gun and was not called back.

Tommy smashed Hamilton's 880-yard record with the fast time of 1:56 2-10 seconds, which is one second slower than Larry Brown's time in the same event at Harvard.

Van Hoesen's time of 9:59 in the two-mile race broke the old record of Eggleston, which was 3-5 seconds slower. Both Clark and Yates ran a pretty race, securing second and third places. Thompson won the mile run while McQueen and Brockway of Union followed.

Captain Oram was Union's highest point man. He won three firsts and tied Kelly for first in the high jump. He also won two seconds, making a total of 25 points. He won the 100 yard dash, and both the 120 and 220 yard hurdles. Fenn and Valentine took second and third places in the two latter events, and A. Alison came in second in the 100 A. Davis of Union won third place in this event.

Union fared better in the field than in the track events and made a total of 23½ points against Hamilton's 30½, while in the track events it made only 26 points to Hamilton's 46. Miller of Union won first place in the 16-pound shot put, and McGiffin and Kelly were second and third. McGiffin won the discus throw with Kelly and Miller tied for second. Edie won the hammer throw by heaving it 114 ft., 1½ in. Crannell of Union was second and Eckler third.

"Art" Warren won the pole-vault by clearing the bar at 10 ft., 9 in. Fletcher was second and "Babe" Reeder tied Brown of Union for third place.

Track Events

REVIEW OF TRACK SEASON

The 1922 track team under the competent coaching of Paul C. Squires, '16, as merged with a perfect record from a season that has won many aurels for the Buff an Blue athletes. Four colleges were completely outclassed by Squires' men and in no case did Hamilton's opponents succeed in running up 50 points. This marks the first time that the track team has won all four dual meets of the year. That there is no doubt that the team is better balanced and superior to any former Hamilton team is shown in the records set during the past season. Seven records were broken and one established this year.

To go into the matter in detail, it is interesting to note the following statistics compiled by Coach Squires. In none of the four meets did our opponents obtain as many points as Hamilton in either the field or track events. The season's average for the number of points out of a possible nine are:

Track events: 5.875; field events: 5.92.

The average since the Rochester meet is:

Track events: 6.09; field events: 5.227.

The total number of points credited to Hamilton is 330 while our opponents secured 183. The average number of points secured by the Buff and Blue for all events of the year is 5.898 or almost six out of every nine. These figures show a remarkably well-balanced team.

To The Alumni.

Just a little over two weeks now remains before the various alumni classes hold their reunions. Since this will be the last issue of Life until the week-end after examinations. we take this opportunity to express our sincere desire that every alumnus who can lock up his office desk for a few days will be back on the Hill to join in the activities that are held for his benefit.

The purpose of this editorial is not to try to instill or stir up any loyalty among the alumni by exploiting the glories of the college. We know we can rely on it from the support we have received in the past. We merely wish to notify the alumni who, for some reason or other, have not been able to visit the Hill for a number of years that much has gone on in the way of progress. The new athletic building, the new baseball diamond, and the new golf course have been completed while tennis courts and a concrete road up College Hill are in process of construction. There are also some changes in the college itself and in the student activities which have occurred in the past ten or fifteen years that the alumni ought to know about from first hand sources. A week-end visit to the Hill is the best method of accomplishing this.

We realize that it is hard for a tired business man to break away from the routine of his office without feeling a great concern for the work he has left behind him. If you can make yourself forget your troubles for a short while, pack up your grip, and come prepared to have a good time. Don't come from a sense of duty, but rather from the expectation of having enjoyment and an opportunity of seeing your old friends. We venture to assure you that the realization will equal the anticipation soon after your arrival on the Campus.

PLEASING PROGRAM GIVEN IN LITTLE THEATRE

Four One-Act Plays Presented by Class in Dramatic Interpretation

Four short, one-act plays were presented by the class in dramatic interpretation last Wednesday evening in the Little Theatre. This is the second performance given by the class this year, the last on being that in February of this year.

"Alison's Lad", a tragedy by Beulah Marie Dix was the first presentation. The scene of the play is the village of Faringford, England, during the second Civil War. Five officers of the king's party have been captured by the Roundheads. Among the captives are Sir Wm. Strickland and Tom Winwood, played by Doane and Langtry, respectively. Strickland is interested in the young lad and his exploits, because he believes in his integrity as the son of the woman he had once loved. The prisoners are discovered to have broken their parole and one of them must pay the death penalty. The lot falls on Winwood. His death is a fearless one, and Strickland, who has been wounded in the fight of the morning, sees his faith in "Alison's Lad" rewarded, before he, too, dies. Langtry as Tom Winwood did an effective piece of work. His part was difficult but was very well presented. The rest of the cast also did excellent work which was made more impressive by the fine costuming and stage setting. Professor Fancher played the part of Lieutenant Robert Goring in the absence of Chase, who was to have taken the part originally.

While not a comedy, the next play, "Moonshine," by Arthur Hopkins, was a decided contrast to "Alison's Lad." As the title suggests, the setting is a modern one in the south. Morehouse did a good bit of acting as Jim Dunn, revenue officer, and Morris played the moonshiner with an accuracy that pleased the audience immensely. Morris' dialect was remarkably good.

Lord Dunsany's "Fame and the Poet" was a refreshing bit of London life. Loomis as the poet discovers his coveted Fame in the person of a beautiful girl who first astonishes him, then enraptures him and finally disgusts him. Fenn as Fame was very good in that highly amusing role. Loomis and Kaiser shone to good advantage in their parts.

It is safe to say that the last of the four plays, a scherzo-play by Alfred Kreymborg entitled "Lima Beans," was the best of the evening. Baer, '24, although not a member of the class in dramatics, did a part that a far more experienced actor might have envied. Lanrowitz showed real talent as the Husband. It is hard to say enough in praise of the work of these two men in this piece. The difficulty of this type of play which Kreymborg calls "pantomime acting or dancing of folk or automatons to an accompaniment of rhythmic lines in place of music" but adds to the credit which Baer and Lanrowitz deserve for their performance.

The whole evening's entertainment speaks volumes for the excellence of the training which the class has received from Professor Fancher.

The casts of the plays follow:

Alison's Lad

Col. Sir Wm. Strickland, Capt. George Barlow, Lieut. Robert Goring, Francis Hopton, Tom Winwood, Cavaliers, played by J. P. Doane, F. W. Marlowe, Professor Fancher, Arnold Hall and C. S. Langtry; Col. John Drummond, Roundhead, F. J. Burns.

Moonshine

Luke Hazy, moonshiner, A. L. Morris; Jim Dunn, revenue officer, G. C. Morehouse, Jr.

Fame and the Poet

Harry de Reves, a poet, C. G. Loomis; Dick Prattle, of the Royal Horse Marines, C. J. Kaiser; Fame, W. P. Fenn.

Lima Beans

The Wife, W. B. Baer, '24; The Husband, E. Lanrowitz; The Huckster, Professor Fancher.

REVIEW OF TRACK SEASON

An idea of the quality of the Hamilton runners can be given by a comparison of some of the men who opposed them.

Dunn of Rochester made the 100 yard dash in 9 8-10 seconds at Union, but did not receive full credit because of a slight wind. "Alex" Alison defeated Dunn in the 220 yard dash. Remington also of Rochester belongs in the 16 and 17 second class in the high hurdles.

Morgan of St. Lawrence secured third place in the high hurdles at the intercollegiates and Kane won first place in the hammer throw.

Patterson on the Union team is considered a very good man in the middle distances. Oram, the captain of the Garnet, is probably one of the best hurdlers of the smaller colleges in the state. He defeated Bulger of Colgate in the indoor hurdles last winter. Both Oram and Patterson were defeated by Buff and Blue men. Thompson in particular was matched up against such men as Rathbun of Iowa State and Brown of Cornell, who won the intercollegiates at Harvard last year.

It is most probable that the Hamilton team would have fared even better had not Captain Pope's illness prevented him from competing in the last three meets of the season. Eckler also was handicapped in the weight events on account of an illness which came late in the season and prevented him from showing his old time form. Babe Reeder was hindered by an injured knee which kept him from coming within ½ inch in the college broad jump record as he did last year. He did remarkably well, however, in the pole vault Saturday after practicing only three times previous to the meet. Fletcher deserves recognition for the height he made in the St. Lawrence meet by clearing the bar at 11 feet.

Very great credit is due to Coach Squires, whose capable supervision enabled the team to accompish what it did.

The records set this year are:

Relay team record, 3:29 8-10; (Alison, Scott, Snell and Morris.)

Two mile run, 9:37 4-10; (Thompson) former record, 9:38.

220 yard dash, 22 1-10 sec.; (Alison) former record, 22 4-10.

220 low hurdles, 26 sec.; (Pope), former record, 26 4-10.

One mile run, 4:33 4-10; (Thompson), former record 4:35.

880 yard dash, 1:56 2-10; (Thompson), former record 1:59 6-10.

High jump, 5 ft., 9 3-4 in.; (Kelly), former record 5 ft., 9 1-4 in.

Javelin throw, 137 ft., 7 in. (established by A. Warren.)

—Hon. William M. Collier, LL.D., '89, who is now Unitsd States ambassador to Chile, has been granted a short vacation, and is now on his way from Santiago to the United States.

—William J. Maier ex-'99 has just been appointed Comptroller of the State of New York by Governor Miller to fill the vacancy caused by the death of James J. Wendell. Mr. Maier, whose residence is Seneca Falls, N. Y., has been first deputy state Comptroller in the administration of Governor Miller.

Maier has been active in Albany for several years. His entire public service, with the exception of a term spent as representative of Seneca County in the Assembly, has been spent in the Comptroller's office. While Mr. Maier was in the Assembly he was head of several important state committees. His term as state Comptroller extends to Dec. 31, 1922.

Bonus—bona—bonum!

IMAGINE the agony of the old oaken soldiers of Rome who were compelled to shave soapless before meeting the enemy. Not so good!

Today—bonus or not—you college veterans will not decline a good thing. Williams' Shaving Cream does away with all tense expressions and puts you in the right mood.

That rich white lather that stays rich and thick, softens whisker resistance and reduces razor action to a pleasant painless purr. Williams' Shaving Soaps have been a tradition among college men for generations.

Try it—tomorrow before chapel.

NOTED ALUMNUS SUCCUMBS TO SHORT ILLNESS

Following an illness of ten days, Judge Charles Prentiss Orr, '79, senior member of the bench of the United States District Court for the western district of Pennsylanvia, died on May 17 from heart trouble and nervous breakdown, at his home, 370 So Highland Ave., Pittsburg. His illness was not considered serious at first, although he was confined to his house.

Judge Orr was born in old Allegheny in 1858, a son of Robert and Margaret Orr. He received his public school education in the Allegheny schools, and later went to old Central High School in Pittsburgh. Upon his graduation from Hamilton, he studied law with Thomas C. Lazear, and was admitted to the bar in 1881.

Five years later Judge Orr became a partner in the law firm of Lazear and Orr, continuing his active practice in Pittsburgh until 1909, when he received his appointment as judge for the U. S. District Court in the Pittsburgh district.

In 1910 he was granted the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws by Hamilton Colloge.

During his thirteen years on the bench, Judge Orr handed down many important decisions. This was particularly true of his rulings affecting the wartime prohibition act. From the time the act went into effect, Judge Orr's decisions often brought down on him the censure of the prohibition leaders. He was among the first Federal judges in the country to insist that Federal prohibition agents be armed with search warrants before they entered any store or residence where the sale of liquor was made. He likewise insisted that evidence of sale be produced before the search warrants could be issued by the U. S. commissioner, and in connection with this point, once threatened to hold two Federal dry agents in contempt of court if they were not guided by the strict letter of the law.

Judge Orr leaves his widow, Anna Lazear Orr, one daughter, Miss Alice L. Orr, and two sons, Pennock Park Orr, and Thomas Lazear Orr, all of Pittsburgh. He was a member of the Sigma Phi Society.

SHIFTER "ARGO"

The Shifter Organization may be on the decline but many of the expressions that were frequently used in the conversation of the flappers, finale-hoppers, and cake-eaters are still in vogue. A clipping from a New York paper contains the following flapper phrases which are but a few of a glossary that an obliging Shifter-flapper wrote for the benefit of the ignorant.

Oil-burner: Girl who chews gum.
Princess Mary: Girl about to be married.
Dud: Flapper who can't keep in the swim.
Sinker: Girl who is a wall flower.
Red Mike: Boy who never goes out with a girl.
Rug-shaking: Shimmying.
Flat-wheeler: Chap whose idea of entertainment is a walk.
Snugglepupping: Spooning or petting.
Mad money: Street car money in case of a row with your fellow.
Lollywagger: Young man addicted to hallway spooning.
Flat tire: Would-be flapper over thirty.
Knee-duster: Flapper's dress.

VARSITY TO MEET UNION NINE TODAY

Second Encounter of Rivals to Be in Schenectady—Final Game with Colgate

With a victory over Union already won, the Buff and Blue balltossers confidently expect to repeat the performance this afternoon, when the Hamilton team will meet the Garnet at Schenectady. Hamilton opened its home baseball season with a 12 to 10 victory over Union featured with heavy hitting by both teams. This, combined with errors on both sides accounted for the large score, for in earned runs, Hamilton secured seven and Union three. There were eight hits made that went for extra bases, of which the Buff and Blue secured seven. The pitching of Warren and Perry also accounted for this victory, as each struck out four men, holding Union to eight scattered hits while thirteen safe wallops were made by the Hamilton players.

Capt. Davis will probably again take care of third base, leaving Yule to do the catching. If Hatch's ankle is declared in good shape by Coach Prettyman, he may resume his position at the initial sack, otherwise the place will be filled by Pottle who has shown up well in that capacity in recent games.

On Saturday, May 20, Rutgers College took the measure of the Union ball team to the tune of 10 to 8 in a close and well played contest. Union and Hamilton have each improved considerably since their first encounter and a hard struggle is expected when the clash takes pace today.

For the final game of the season th Buff and Blue will meet Colgate on the home grounds Friday, June 3. Although the Maroon hung a disastrous beating on Coach Pettyman's protegees at the beginning of the season, Capt. Davis and his men are confident that the final game will be a Hamilton victory.

The Maroon has enjoyed a rather successful season thus far. On Saturday, May 13, they trimmed West Point 8 to 2. The following Wednesday their ancient rival, Syracuse, was overwhelmed 15 to 5, due to excellent pitching by Blume, ragged playing by the Orange, and the hitting of Capt. Steffen and Herman, who each garnered three hits out of as many trips to the plate. Three days later, on Saturday, Syracuse was again defeated 4 to 2, this time by Kinney, who held the Orange to seven scattered hits while Colgate secured eleven. In this game O'Hern, the Maroon shortstop, excelled in fielding, handling five chances perfectly.

On Monday, May 22, the Colgate ball-tossers journeyed to Cambridge and lost a hard-fought contest to Harvard 2 to 1. Blume, the Maroon star twirler, pitched an excellent game, allowing but one hit. Untimely errors, however, in the third and seventh innings spoiled his efforts. The Colgate hurler was master of the Crimson batsmen at all times. He fanned four and walked six men, but tightened up in the pinches to such an extent that nine Harvard runners were left stranded on the bases. Capt. Steffen excelled at the bat with two safe singles out of four times at the plate. The fielding honors went to Hermann at third, who handled five chances perfectly.

VARSITY LOSES THREE GAMES

star batter of the game. He made three hits and both runs.

In the fourth Sullivan reached third, but the next three men were quickly put out. Not a single Buff and Blue player reached first during the next two innings. Rochester accomplished nothing in the fifth, but it was in the sixth that their first run came in. Green made a long hit to center-field, and stole second after Pottle caught Sullivan's fly. Carhart fanned and Cahill drove a liner to Hunter, who threw over Pottle's head and enabled Green to come home. The first part of the inning ended with Gleason's fly to Monaghan. In the second half of this inning, Perry made Hamilton's only hit, a drive into right field, but in the last three innings none of his team-mates reached the bases.

Rochester's second run came in in the eighth, after Green made a hit into right field, stole second, and came home on a hit by Sullivan. That completed the scoring, as none of the next six men at bat reached first.

R. P. I. Game

Costly errors at critical periods of the R. P. I. game accounted for Hamilton's defeat. Warren pitched his usual brand of ball, striking out eleven men. However, had his team-mates been hitting as hard as in previous games this season, there might have been a diffrent story to tell. Browne, R. P. I.'s star twirler, pitched carefully, allowing no bases on balls and but eight hits, all singles.

Hamilton's run came in the fifth inning. Davis was first to bat and singled to right field. Pottle singled between first and second, advancing Davis. Davis scored on Pritchard's bunt. During the rest of the game Hamilton did not threaten to cross the plate. R. P. I.'s first score came in the second inning, after two men had been called out. Purcell drew a base on balls and stole second. Then he scored on Browne's single to right field. Another score in the third inning came after the second out. Capt. Cropsey singled to right field. Holcomb grounded a fast one to Warren for a safe hit, Cropsey scoring. Van Ben was hit by a pitched ball, and Wright drew a base on balls. With the bases filled, Manning grounded out to Warren. In the fifth inning came two more runs. Eller drew a base on balls and stole second. Cropsey sacrificed. Holcomb singled to right field, scoring Eller, and then stole second. Van Ben knocked a two-bagger to right field, scoring Holcomb. Warren retired the side by fanning Wright and Purcell. The lucky seventh drew three more runs for R. P. I. Eller singled to center field, but was caught trying to steal second. Cropsey was hit by a pitched ball, and Holcomb made first on a hit to Warren. Then a peg to second by Davis from the plate went right through both second baseman and shortstop. The ball rolled to center field and Cropsey scored, Holcomb reaching third. Van Ben was next up and made a home run on a hit to right field which rolled past Pritchard.

CALENDAR

Tuesday, May 30, Decoration Day—Baseball with Union at Schenectady. Tennis with University of Southern California here.

Wednesday, May 31—McKinney Prize Debate, 8 p. m.

Thursday and Friday, June 1-2—Curran and Hawley prize examinations in Greek and Latin.

Friday, June 2—Interclass sing.

Saturday, June 3—Baseball with Colgate, here. Tennis with St. Lawrence here. Tompkins prize examination in Mathematics. Warfield Prize examination in German.

Y. M. C. A. CABINET

President Fitch of the Y. M. C. A. has selected his cabinet for the coming year. The organization will consist of thirteen men, including William P. Fenn, '23, vice-president; Philip G. Scott, '25, secretary; and Paul S. Olver, 24, treasurer. P. N. McGiffin, '23, will have charge of publicity; John Q. Howe, '24, and Romeo Culver, '24, will head the Entertainment Committee; Jay Williams, '23, president of the M. M. Club, will have charge of vicinity work. Julian C. Kaiser, '23, will act as chairman of the Speakers' Committee; William F. Hoyt, '25, will have charge of Bible Study; Richard Wood, '24, and John Toaz, '25, will act on the Membership Committee, and Wilfred T. Packer, '25, will have charge of the House Committee.

ROYAL GABOON WINS PLACE IN COLLEGE WITS' CONTEST

The Hamilton College humorous publication, the Royal Gaboon, has been awarded tenth place in the college wits' contest held by Judge. That the Gaboon should win tenth place is excellent work for there were approximately eighty college comics competing, many of them from larger colleges and established before the Gaboon. The Cornell Widow received first place in the contest. Hamilton's publication received sixty votes for merit from the judges.

Leo Mulford, '22, the editor of the Gaboon at the time of the contest, submitted several contributions, literary and graphic. William G. Lewi, '24, succeeded in having a poem published in the first issue of the college wits' number of Judge, and Paul Bixler, '22, was represented by another poem in the overflow issue.

ALUMNI BANQUET AT DES MOINES

At the 134th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, now being held at Des Moines, Iowa, there are present as delegates about a dozen Hamilton alumni. A Hamilton banquet was given last Wednesday at the Grant Club of Des Moines, by William M. Wilcoxen, '83, who is president of that organization. Among those present were: Norman J. Marsh, '85, James B. Rodgers, '85, John Harvey Lee, '95, John P. Montrose, '87, Albert E. Stuart, '91, George M. Day, '05, Thomas W. Day, '75, John S. Niles, '86, Charles O. Gray, '90, and Edwin H. Jenks, '86.

The affair was very enjoyable and successful. College songs were sung and brief speeches made, and reports of the condition of the college presented. All of the speakers expressed great appreciation of the work of Dr. Ferry as President. Many of those present are coming back to the Hill at Commencement.
